

JN MONEY SERVICES LIMITED

PRIVACY NOTICE

1. INTRODUCTION

This Privacy Notice explains how JN Money Services Limited (“JNMS”) collects, uses, and discloses your personal information, including the types of information we process and the reasons for which we process them. The personal information we collect from you depends on the nature of the services we provide and how we interact with you. This Notice may be supplemented by the Privacy Notice of The Jamaica National Group Limited.

2. WHO WE ARE

JNMS is a member company of The Jamaica National Group Limited (the parent company). Our Head Office is in Jamaica, and we have four subsidiaries: JNMS (UK) Limited, JNMS (USA) Incorporated, JNMS (Canada) Limited and JNMS (Cayman) Limited. JNMS takes its data protection responsibilities very seriously. The effective management of all personal data, including its security and confidentiality, lies at the very heart of our business and underpins our practices and processes.

As an organisation with a global presence, we are subject to the varying requirements of data protection legislation in the jurisdictions where we operate including the Jamaica Data Protection Act, Canada’s Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA), the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the Cayman Data Protection Act and any applicable data protection legislation in the US states within which we operate. Our aim is to be as consistent as possible and obey all applicable laws and apply the highest standard of privacy laws to our approach.

We are a part of a diversified Group that provide services including banking, insurance, investment management, money remittance, bill payment, information technology and fleet management.

3. OUR DATA PROTECTION COMMITMENT

The JN Group respects our customers, employees, and other stakeholders’ right to privacy and we commit to take great care to safeguard their personal data in our possession. We commit to adopt and observe appropriate data protection standards in compliance with the Data Protection Act, 2020, the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) and all other applicable Privacy laws and regulations in the territories in which we operate. Part of our commitment to data protection compliance is our sustained commitment to deploy stringent security measures to protect the personal data entrusted to us.

The JN Group cares about and values data privacy!

4. THE TYPES OF INFORMATION WE COLLECT

7. WHEN WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We do not rent or sell your information to anyone and will only share your information in circumstances where we are legally permitted to do so. We may share your personal information with the following categories of recipients where necessary to offer, administer and manage the services provided to you:

a) Within the JN Group

We may share your personal information with other entities or departments within the JN Group for the processing purposes outlined in this Notice.

b) Third Party Suppliers

We may share your information where we outsource our processing operations to third party suppliers that process personal information on our behalf and to third party vendors, agents, consultants, sub-contractors and other service providers who we employ to perform tasks on our behalf such as FEXCO (for foreign exchange), MoneyGram, and DHL. These processing operations will be guided by contract which includes requiring that your personal information be kept confidential and processed in accordance with data protection standards.

c) Third Parties, Upon Your Request

If you ask us to, we will share information with any third party that provides you with account information or payment services. If you ask a third-party provider to provide you with account information or payment services, you are allowing that third party to access information relating to your transaction with JNMS. We are not responsible for any such third party's use of your information, which will be governed by their agreement with you and any privacy statement they provide to you.

d) Law Enforcement Bodies

We may share your information where necessary with law enforcement agencies to facilitate the prevention or detection of a crime or the apprehension or prosecution of offenders. If false or inaccurate information is provided and/or fraud is identified or suspected, details will be passed to fraud prevention agencies. Law enforcement agencies and other organisations may access and use this information.

e) Public Authorities and Regulators

We may share your information where necessary for us to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations, both local and overseas.

f) External Auditors

We may share your information with external auditors where necessary for the conduct of company audits.

g) Credit and Other Risk Management Agencies

We may share your personal information with credit reference, background check, fraud prevention, data validation and other professional advisory agencies where necessary to prevent and detect fraud, during our recruitment process and to assess the risk in relation to the products and services that we offer.

h) Legal Advisers and Investigators

We may share your information where necessary to investigate, exercise or defend legal claims, or other claims of a similar nature.

i) Successors of the Business etc.

We may choose to buy or sell assets and may share or transfer customer information in connection with the evaluation of these transactions. We may share your personal information with any person to whom we transfer or may transfer all or any part of our business or assets, from whom we acquire any business or assets or who acquires substantially all the assets of JNMS.

If JNMS receives your personal information and subsequently shares that information with a third party for processing, JNMS remains committed to ensuring that such third party processes your personal information to the standards required to comply with applicable data protection laws.

8. OUR LAWFUL BASIS FOR PROCESSING YOUR INFORMATION

We rely on the following lawful basis for processing your information:

Performance of a contract to which you are a party

Our lawful basis for processing in relation to money transfers, foreign exchange transactions, and other services including parcel delivery and the procurement of airline tickets is the Performance of a Contract.

Compliance with a legal obligation or duty

When you apply for a product or service, we are required by law to collect and process certain personal information about you, and the beneficiary in a money transfer transaction. This includes processing to confirm your identity, to perform checks and monitor transactions and location data to prevent and detect crime, to investigate and gather intelligence on suspected financial crimes and to share data with law enforcement and regulatory bodies and to comply with laws relating to money laundering, fraud, terrorist financing, bribery and corruption, and international sanctions. We have a legal obligation to report suspicious activity and comply with court orders.

Please note that if you do not agree to provide us with the requested information, it may not be possible for us to continue to provide services to you.

JN Money Agents: If you apply to become a JN Money agent to transact on our behalf, our application process will check your background, and your staff for compliance reasons, to investigate if you are a “fit and proper” person as described by guidelines/rules issued by regulators such as the Bank of Jamaica and Her Majesty’s Excise and Customs (HMRC). To perform this task, we will share your details with third-party providers who perform identity verification and background checks on our behalf. They carry out credit checks, caution/watch list checks, financial checks, anti-money laundering and criminal activity checks. We will also check your criminal history via the government’s service. Our lawful basis for this processing is Legal Obligation.

For the purposes of our legitimate interests or that of a third party

The collection and use of some aspects of your personal information is necessary to enable us to pursue our legitimate commercial interests. For example, we have legitimate interests in:

- preventing fraud.
- ensuring network and information security of our systems.
- operating our business and managing and developing our relationships with you.
- intra-group administrative transfers.
- understanding how you use our products, services and websites and effecting improvements.
- providing you with the most appropriate products and services.
- direct marketing.
- Conducting credit checks, risk reporting, general financial and accounting reporting to internal management and supervisory bodies.

Where we rely on this legal basis to collect and use your personal information, we shall take appropriate steps to ensure that the processing does not infringe on the rights and freedoms granted to you under the applicable data privacy laws.

Consent

Your personal information may be processed based on your request or agreement. Consent is received at that point to provide these services, and therefore, process your information.

Where we rely on your consent to collect and use your information, you are not obliged to provide your consent and you may choose to subsequently withdraw your consent at any stage once provided. However, where you refuse to provide information that we reasonably require to provide a service, we may be unable to offer you that service and/or we may terminate the service provided. Where you choose to receive the services from us, you agree to the collection and use of your personal information in the way we describe in this Notice.

9. INTERNATIONAL TRANSFER OF YOUR INFORMATION

We will only send your data outside of the country where you initiated business with us for the purposes outlined in this Notice. In particular, we may make such transfers to offer, administer and manage the services provided to you, to improve the efficiency of our business operations, in keeping with your directives and to comply with a legal duty to do so.

We may transfer data when we process an international transaction as part of our contract of service with you. If you engage in a money transfer, you allow the end destination access to your data. Your personal Information may be processed on our servers located in Jamaica, USA and Canada. Information sent from the client to the server is encrypted and our servers are securely protected.

The countries where we transfer data may not have similar data protection laws to those in your country of residence, however, we will always protect your information on the basis that anyone to whom we pass the information protects it in the same way we would and in accordance with this Notice and applicable laws. Where necessary, we may implement additional technical, organizational, or contractual measures to ensure an adequate level of protection for your personal information.

10. ACCURACY OF YOUR INFORMATION

We rely on the availability of accurate personal information to provide the services to you and operate our business. You should therefore notify us of any changes to your personal information, such as changes concerning your contact details or any other information that may affect the proper management and administration of the services we provide to you.

11. RETENTION OF YOUR INFORMATION

We retain appropriate records of your personal information to operate our business and comply with our legal and regulatory obligations. These records are retained for predefined retention periods that may extend beyond the period for which we provide the services to you. Retention periods are determined based on the type of record, the nature of the activity, product or service, the country in which the relevant company is located and the applicable local legal or regulatory requirements. In most cases we will retain your personal information for no longer than is required under the applicable laws.

We retain customer and transaction records for a minimum of seven years after the date of a transaction or termination of the business relationship, after which it is securely destroyed. Data relating to agents of JN Money is kept for seven years after the termination of the agency agreement.

We may also keep your data for longer than the aforementioned retention periods if we cannot delete it for legal, regulatory, or technical reasons, or as necessary to resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements.

12. INFORMATION SECURITY

The security of your personal information is important to us, and we have implemented appropriate security measures to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of the personal information we collect about you and ensure that such information is processed in accordance with applicable data privacy laws.

Some technical and organisational measures used to protect your personal information includes firewalls, anti-virus protections, patches, encryption, software updates, written policies and procedures which are regularly audited, and the audits reviewed at senior level, limiting access to your personal information to those who need it to do their jobs and using CCTV as a deterrent to protect our staff, customers, equipment and your personal data.

13. YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO PERSONAL DATA

You have the following rights under applicable data protection legislation in respect of any personal information we collect and use about you, depending on the jurisdiction in which we operate:

Your Rights	What They Mean
The right to access your personal data	You have the right to be informed whether, and to what extent, we process your data. Subject to certain exceptions, you have the right to obtain a confirmation as to whether we process your personal data, and if we do, request access to your data.
The right to consent to processing	You have the right to consent to the processing of your personal data. If your personal data is processed based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. The withdrawal of your consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.
The right to object to/prevent processing	You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data in certain situations.
Rights in relation to automated decision making (and profiling)	You have the right to object to decisions based exclusively on the automated processing of your personal data.
The right to rectification	If the personal data that we process is incomplete or incorrect, you have the right to request their completion or correction at any time.
The right to be informed	You have the right to be informed whether and to what extent we process your data.
The right to deletion	Subject to certain exceptions, if you consider that we should stop processing some or all of your personal data, you have the right to request its deletion. However, there may be reasons why an immediate deletion may not be possible (for example where retention is required to meet legal or regulatory obligations).
The right to data portability	Where the processing takes place on the basis of your consent or contract, and is carried out by automated means, you have the right to request that we provide your personal data to you in a machine-readable format.
The right to restrict processing	You have the right to request that we restrict the processing of your personal data in certain situations: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• If you contest the accuracy of your personal data, you

	may request that its processing is restricted while we verify its accuracy. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If the processing of your personal data is considered unlawful, but you do not require the deletion of your personal data. • If we no longer need the data for the purposes of its processing, but you need it for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. • If you object to our processing of your data based on our legitimate interests.

It is important to note, however, that some of the rights described above can only be exercised in certain circumstances. If we are unable to fulfil a request from you to exercise one of your rights, we will write to you to explain the reason for refusal.

14. HOW TO EXERCISE YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO YOUR PERSONAL DATA

You may exercise any of the rights available to you by contacting us using the information found in the “How to Contact Us” section of this Notice. We will examine your request and respond to you as quickly as possible and in accordance with the applicable data protection legislation.

15. USE OF AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING

Where you apply to receive a service from us, we may carry out an automated assessment to determine whether you are eligible to receive the service. This helps us to make sure our decisions are quick, fair, efficient, and comply with our legal obligations. An automated assessment is an assessment carried out automatically using technological means (e.g. computer systems) and excludes any human influence on the outcome. This assessment will analyze your personal information and may include activities such as fraud detection and compliance checks.

Automated decisions can affect the products, services or features we may offer you now or in the future. Where a decision is taken solely by automated means involving the use of your personal information, you have the right to challenge the decision and ask us to reconsider the matter, with human intervention, subject to our legal obligations. If you wish to exercise this right, you should contact us.

16. MARKETING

Unless you have told us that you do not want to hear from us, we will send you relevant marketing information by mail, phone, email, text and other forms of electronic communication. If you change your mind about how you would like us to contact you, or you no longer wish to receive this information, you can have your information removed by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of each email communication or by contacting us. For the contact information, please look at the “Contact Us” section of this notice.

We may still send you non-promotional communications, for instance, administration related emails concerning your business with us.

17. USE OF COOKIES AND OTHER TECHNOLOGY

We use cookies and other internet tracking software to collect data while you are using our websites or mobile apps. Cookies allow us to store information about the computer device you use to access our website so that you can conduct business with us easily. They allow us to recognize when you revisit our websites and to evaluate our websites' advertising and promotional effectiveness. We use both our own (first party) and partner companies' (third party) cookies to support this activity.
